

Local Matters

Sunday Morning, October 9, 1859.

25th Hon. John V. Wright is in the city.RECEIVED OCTOBER.—There were twelve de-functus before the Notary yesterday, six of which belonged to the church-gang.GARAGE OWNERS.—There will be services in this church every day until 10 o'clock.

Rev. Mr. McClosse officiated.

CARRIAGE OWNERS.—The October term of our Criminal Court, his honor Judge McKe-niss presiding, will commence to-morrow. The docket of the forthcoming term is unusually light.SHAWL CORPUS PLATE.—The fair of the Shelby County Agricultural and Mechanical Association will commence at the fair grounds, near the cemetery, on Tuesday next, and will continue five days.JAMES FOLEY was arraigned before Judge T. J. Shattock on the charge of having killed his son, John Foley, in New Orleans, last fall. The indictment was found to be true. The intention was not made out, and the accused was find 40 for the assault.THE SHIPMENTS OF COTTON.—The total number of bales of cotton shipped from this port during the month of August had, even at the present time, not reached 700 bales, when the shipment of cotton for the month of September had, for a similar favor received a few days since. We cannot now tell the number of times we have been compelled to do this, and the consequence of the suspension yesterday was well seen. This was unusual activity at the time of year.We learned from the office of the Misses Mitchell that there were about 1,000 bales of cotton in the hands of their agents, and that they had not yet sent out a single bale.The shipment of cotton weighing 1,000 bales, which was sent to New Orleans, was sent by the hand of the Master of the Fatigue, and the crew of the ship.ROBERT STEPHENS.—The man who had been condemned to death for killing his son, John Foley, was arraigned before Judge T. J. Shattock on the charge of having killed his son, John Foley, in New Orleans, last fall. The indictment was found to be true. The intention was not made out, and the accused was found guilty.

C. H. GULICK & SON, SORRY.

DEATH OF A GOOD CHILD.—We regret to announce the death of Rev. S. G. Starkas, Principal of the State Female College, near this city. Appropriate resolutions by the Board of Directors of the College will be found elsewhere.DEATH OF A GOOD MAN.—We regret to announce the death of Capt. Henry W. Smith, formerly of this city, and late editor of the Daily American, having died at New Orleans, last Friday evening, at the age of 55 years.REV. DR. THOMAS STANTON, of New Orleans, died on Saturday morning, at the age of 65 years. He was a son of Dr. Thomas Stanton, of New York, and a brother of Dr. George W.
Stanton, of New York.QUICK WORK.—A resolution passed the Board of Aldermen Friday evening, directing the old market-houses to be removed and ordered to be taken down. The work was commenced immediately.DEATH OF A GOOD WOMAN.—We regret to announce the death of Mrs. S. G. Starkas, Principal of the State Female College, near
this city. Appropriate resolutions by the Board of Directors of the College will be found elsewhere.NEWSLETTER CHARGE.—T. E. Stoyanoff, Esq., formerly of this city, and late editor of the Daily American, having died at New Orleans,
last Friday evening, at the age of 55 years.REV. DR. THOMAS STANTON, of New Orleans, died on Saturday morning, at the age of 65 years. He was a son of Dr. Thomas Stanton,
of New York, and a brother of Dr. George W.
Stanton, of New York.NOTICE.—We regret to announce the death of Mrs. S. G. Starkas, Principal of the State Female College, near this city. Appropriate resolutions by the Board of Directors of the College will be found elsewhere.

JAMES S. DAY.

NEGRO WOOL HAT.

NO. 100 WOOL HAT, all colors, not covered with black silk, $2.50 each.

FOR RENT.

KATTA COFFEE-HOUSE, with large parlor, large dining room, and a room for private gatherings, seven miles above Memphis, on the Natchez Trace, $10 per week.REV. DR. THOMAS STANTON, of New Orleans, died on Saturday morning, at the age of 65 years. He was a son of Dr. Thomas Stanton,
of New York, and a brother of Dr. George W.
Stanton, of New York.NOTICE.—We regret to announce the death of Mrs. S. G. Starkas, Principal of the State Female College, near this city. Appropriate resolutions by the Board of Directors of the College will be found elsewhere.

JAMES S. DAY.

GUNS! GUNS!

WE HAVE GUNS AND BLASTING INSTRUMENTS, especially.

WE HAVE GUNS AND BLASTING INSTRUMENTS,